

Lower Richland High School won Attendance Award at SCPTA Open House

(Columbia, SC) March 1, 2009

Students and parents of the Lower Richland High School PTSA attended the SCPTA Open House on Sunday, March 1, 2009, sponsored by the SCPTA Historic House Preservation Committee, and won the Attendance Award.

The SCPTA Historic House Preservation Committee took the advice of Sharon King and created the Attendance Award. The school PTA/PTSA with the most people attending the Open House would earn a free night at the 2009 SCPTA convention hotel and a free registration to the convention.

(Michael Wilson and his dad, Cleveland Wilson)

Cleveland Wilson is president of the school's PTSA. Those attending from Lower Richland High School PTSA with Mr. Wilson were Michael Wilson, Sharon King, Brandon King, Vernon King, Mary Evans, and Patricia Gates.
